From the Village Hall, wander along Quay Road until you get to Devoran Quay. Walk up the creek until you reach the end of the quayside.

Next, turn left until you reach the end.

After that, turn left along a small path. Now, turn left again into the woods and carry on to the swings. Then stroll along from the swings, up two hills to the mouth-watering Old Quay Inn. Now, follow the road until you reach the park.

Finally walk back down Market Street to the Village Hall.

There is a lot of wildlife around Devoran, see if you can find some of them.
