

Devoran played a very important role in the tin and copper mining industry. It developed as a small port, exporting minerals all over the world.

The Redruth and Chacewater railway engines terminated at the port after carrying their loads from lots of local mines.

For more information:

NOW

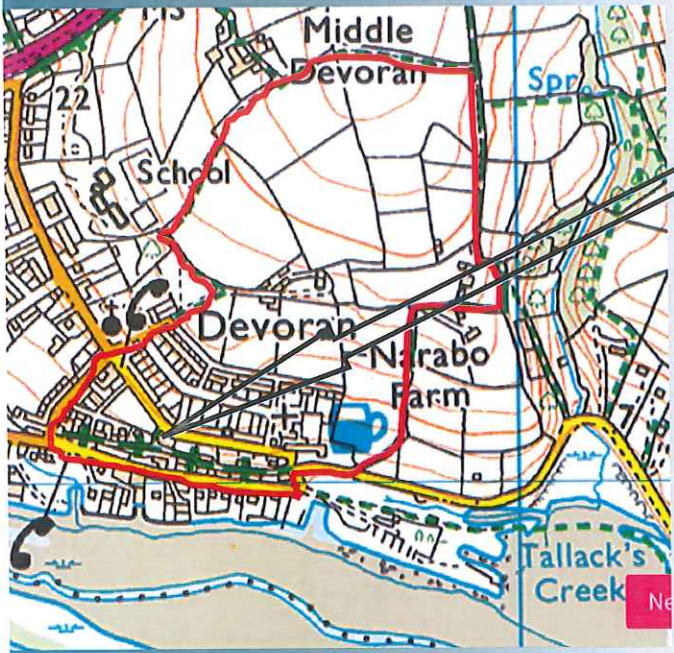

THEN

Devoran

Devoran is the perfect place to venture out into the wild, jaw-dropping scenery with an option to dine in the celebrated Old Quay Inn. Come to Devoran as many times as you want because it's completely free!

by Archie, Toby and Ali

Starting at Devoran Village Hall, follow this scenic route. You will pass the church, and follow on a nature trail along the edge of fields and down wooded lanes. Along the way you will arrive at Devoran Quay where there is lots of fun to be had.

ENJOY!

SCAVENGER HUNT!

Can you spot these things on your trip around Devoran?

- What makes Devoran phone box special?
- Is the Village Hall sign black or blue?
- Finally, have a go at crabbing down at Devoran Quay.
- How many crabs can you catch?

WORDSEARCH

GSDSGIGSDFGZWETUHGFDST
 SDEFFREWQASDDFN T TSSSD
 DENGHJKLAWERTYUUIOPAPP
 E SDFGTCOPPERUIOPMINERA
 VSERTYUIOPLKJUICOALDERT
 OSETVBHUIKGYWAQERFAWQ
 RAWERTYUUFINTIOPJHGBGF
 ADWSRTYUGFTGHVBNNNZAQ
 NAWERTGTYUHNBQCTINFGH

GIG DEVORAN COPPER FLINT
 MINE COAL TIN

*Forgotten your picnic?
 Why don't you try the local Old
 Quay Inn for a Snack or get a refreshing drink.*