A Day in Devoran

Why not take this unforgettable walk down the delightful yet simple lanes and sights of Devoran .

Leaflet by Maddie ,Zoe, Amy, Erin

Starting at the historical Devoran village hall, turn right up Market Street.

Pass the old school on your right. Cross St. Johns Terrace and pass the church of St John and St Petroc on your left.

Continue up the farm lane to a stile on your left. Over the stile and along to a right turn across a field.

Pass Devoran Middle Farm to your left, over the bumpy stone stile and along more wonderful lanes.

Turn right through a large metal gate—Look out for pigs, horses, sheep or cows in the fields around here.

When you come to the sleeping cat, pass through the gate and down the steep path. Continue through the dense wooded paths until you reach a small, tarmacked road. Turn right then take the next left and ahead of you will be Devoran Quay—an ideal location for picnics, canoeing, crabbing and messing about by the river.

From the Quay entrance, look to your right and you will see the place where you started this wonderful journey.
